

A photograph of a dirt road lined with trees, with the word 'blue' highlighted in a white box.

two roads diverged
in a blue wood...

All your life, you have made choices
Some were easy, almost subconscious, while others kept you up for hours at night, your mind spinning while trying to decide what was best.

perhaps you filled notebooks with pro and con lists, analyzing every possible angle as you weighed the consequences. Sometimes you knew from the moment an opportunity presented itself where your path would go and charged forward without looking back.

Other times, you swayed on the fence, torn between the road you wanted to take and the one that seemed more secure.
These feelings and experiences shaped the paths we walk upon, even at this very moment, continuing far ahead, beyond where the eye can see.

Don't look back- your destiny is calling.

To the class of 2015,

You gave it your all these last four years, working long into the night to put the finishing touches on projects and cramming for tests. You pushed yourself harder than you ever have before to master new concepts and ready yourself to enter the adult world. Along the way, you made friendships you'll cherish forever, memories that will last a lifetime. Let these experiences guide you down the path to a bright, successful future. Wishing you the best of luck in all that you aim to do.
